

GENEALOGICAL JEWELS

Here's a list of locations where family papers and treasured may be found. Ask your relatives if they have any of these items and, if so, whether you could see them.

- Announcements and invitations
- Books (baby books, diaries, family histories, family recipe books, other old books, school yearbooks, autograph books)
- Certificates (birth, christening, bar or bat mitzvah, confirmation, school, military, marriage, divorce, and death)
- Deeds and wills
- Family Bibles
- Family trees or charts
- Heirlooms (quilts, jewelry, old books, candlesticks, furniture)
- Identification cards
- Letters
- Newspaper clippings
- Photo albums
- Scrapbooks
- Trophies, plaques, or other awards

WHAT I FOUND	WHO OWNS IT	ITS SIGNIFICANCE